

Illustrations to highlight horrible practised in India due to Toxic Masculinity. Illustration draws are not fictional. They are based on real-life scenario across India.

Infographic Illustration

Upasana Gupta, Batch 5

Post Graduate Diploma in Communication Design,
Kerala State Institute of Design

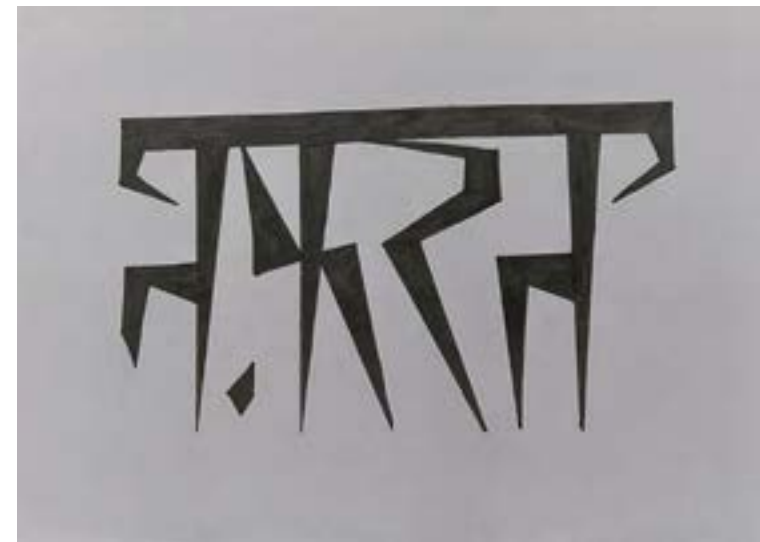

I am always curious to bridge the gap between my imagination and reality through my designs. I aim and aspire to learn by pushing my boundaries in every task assigned. My aim is to create appealing design along with creative satisfaction.

I believe that if people could connect to my work, then it would be the biggest achievement for me as a designer.

<https://www.behance.net/upasanagupta0711>

Typography that convey its meaning through the visuals. Being an communication designer it helped me to explore communication & design together more creatively.

Expressive Typography

Illustrations to honour the main Covid Hero's who has always been on the frontline protecting us.

Covid Illustrations