

Lento Soap

A Soap with Zero Leftover

The unseen massive waste produced by the soap leftovers is a matter of concern as the number of soap users are really huge. With this Lento soap I aims a soap design which helps us to utilize the entire toilet soap with zero leftovers.

A multiposture Study Chair

Sitting in a single posture for longer time makes learning dull and boring. The concept of multiposture chair was thus introduced so that the chair can contribute to the overall learning experience.
